House & Officers Update

Treasurer Update

- $250 for each banquet
- Hereford on the Lawn reduced to $7000
- Budget sheet distributed

Publicity-Chair Update

- Anna got 1 sure response, another 1 who is not exactly sure.

Nuts and Bolts

- Sign Thank you cards for Jen and Lisa from UPC – done
- Jared's Proposal – revamping Hereford "trail"
 - We need to talk to the Office of Architecture, and need a student rep (Jared)
 - Include Nancy in all correspondence
- Hereford on the Lawn
 - Why spend so much on something that 50% of students attend?
 - Venue and food cost the most
 - It is a tradition – will keep
- Swine Flu
 - RAs have a system for it according to Lisa
 - Masks, food delivery volunteers
- Lisa's Care Package
 - John proposed a care package for Lisa
- Hike in the Shenandoah – proposed by an active student of Hereford Minifarm
 - John will be heading this event
- No-Shave November – C.J. & Jared
 - Rule: participants must shave on October 31. Whoever goes longest without shaving will win. On November 30, there will be a tie-breaker judged by non-participating Senators and Fellows. Panel decides who has the best beard: length, style, X Factor. Others who make it to the 30th may groom and style their beard and show to the panel.
 - Prize: trophy?
 - Advertisement: posters and emails, word of mouth
- Tri-Wizard Tourney – Maggie
 - Planning will be postponed, still need to contact Brown and IRC
 - Email Maggie if you have ideas
- Horseback Trail Riding – Katie
 - Katie will call the company. Do we have enough interest?

- Winter Green – Derrick & Stephen
 - Winter Green opens Dec 12
 - Student discount: Jane 5, $45 for lift and equipment rental (Tuesday – Thursdays only). Dec 14-16, Jan 4-6, March 8-10 have lower rates.
 - 20+ people for group discounts
 - Spring Semester
 - Proposal: January 19? Conflict with sorority rush
- Time Management Workshop by Fellow: Karlin Luedtke (Wednesday night)
 - Katy Lai will get in touch with her
 - Anna proposes a series of lectures. Personal Finance. Who teaches that?
- Breast Cancer Awareness talk by Fellow: Karen Bloomfield
 - Lisa might be working with Karen
 - Sponsor ribbons? Hand-made or bought?
 - October is breast cancer awareness month
 - Need to check with Danielle
